Educate, Entertain & Enlighten

One Pennwood Avenue, Edgewood, PA 15218-1613

September 2011

Dear Friend,

A Public Library that is free to all is a priceless and irreplaceable benefit to our community. But, without your support, C.C. Mellor Memorial Library's future is not guaranteed. At this critical time would you step forward and make an investment to show how much you value your Library.

Now more than ever, C.C. Mellor is in need of your support to ensure that we can continue to play an important role in education, literacy and lifelong learning for all members of our community by providing:

- Award-winning programs for children of all ages in the Fred Rogers Children's Room in Edgewood, the Forest Hills branch, and at the Braddock Hills, Churchill and Wilkins municipal buildings, as well as outreach programming to local preschools and day care centers.
- Adult activities on topics ranging from personal finance to computer skills to book discussions.
- Wi-Fi internet access to your laptop from anywhere in the Library, and access to the internet and the latest version of Microsoft Office from 18 computers in the adult and children's areas.
- An ever-expanding collection of books, audio books, and movies from our collections along with access to every library in Allegheny County.
- Ability to download e-books and e-movies to your portable device and access to numerous on-line databases.
- A community center and meeting place, truly the "heart" of the community.

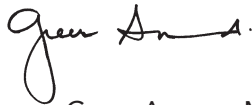

The shared vision and charitable contributions of private citizens provided us with the C.C. Mellor Memorial Library and Edgewood Community House over 95 years ago. Today, more than ever, we need your help to continue providing outstanding library services free to the public, and to restore and preserve our historic community landmark for future generations.

Please consider becoming a partner with us by making a gift or pledge to the 2012 C.C. Mellor Memorial Library and Edgewood Community House Annual Appeal. Your gift is a major step in helping us continue to serve our community.

Sincerely,

Christine Probert
President, Board of Trustees
