EXPLORING OPERA

Thursday July 8, 15, 22 and 29 @ 1:30pm. Join us to explore the Pittsburgh Opera Carmen Trunk, a large, colorful steamer trunk filled with books, CDs, videos, costumes, props, photos and activities for all kids. On July 8 our very own Sam Columbus will be here talking about his experiences this past year with Pittsburgh Opera's production of Carmen. The use of the Pittsburgh Opera Carmen Trunk was made possible by Pittsburgh Opera and Allegheny County Library Association.

The Library will be closed on July 5 for Independence Day.

We Two Read HITS THE ROAD

Thanks to a grant from Dollar General WE TWO READ, a book club for children 4-7 and a parent/caregiver, is coming to a location near you this July! Participants will read and discuss books, do an art project based on the book and keep the book to help build a home library.

Outer Banks Beach House Auction to Benefit CCM

Through the generosity of a patron, the Library will auction a week's stay at Water View Downs, located on North Carolina's Outer Banks between the villages of Duck and Corolla. Available the week of September 11-18, the three bedroom, 2 ½ bath house sleeps six, has decks off all rooms, and is a quick walk to the beach. Bidding on the house runs through July 31. Bids can be made by contacting Sally Bogie at bogies@einetwork.net, or by contacting the Library @ 412-731-0909. All bids will be confidential, and bidders will be notified when a higher bid has been placed. Bidding begins at $500. Visit the Library's website to learn more, see a link to the house, and to place a bid.
