

C.C. Mellor Memorial Library

Educate, Entertain & Enlighten

One Pennwood Avenue, Edgewood, PA 15218-1613

October 2009

Dear Friend,

A Public Library that is free to all is a priceless and irreplaceable benefit. But, without the support of the community, C.C. Mellor Memorial Library's future is not guaranteed. Funding for library services has been cut by the state and municipal contributions are down. We need your support, more than ever, to keep your community library strong.

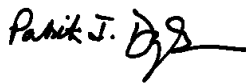

C.C. Mellor Memorial Library gives your family access to books, audio books and movies from our Edgewood and Forest Hills collections and from every library in Allegheny County. If you can't find it, a friendly staff member is there to help. We know you're busy, so request materials from your home computer. Did you know you can also download audio books and movies from our website?

C.C. Mellor Memorial Library is about community and reaching out to your family, where you live, with award-winning children's programs. Last year we offered over 700 programs for children of all ages and provided them with reading enrichment and entertainment in a safe and caring atmosphere. We are a friendly lifelong learning venue where adults can catch up on basic computer skills, enjoy the companionship of a book group, or take workshops on a myriad of topics. Check www.ccmellorlibrary.org for a complete list of learning opportunities offered each month at no charge.

Your Library card provides WiFi Internet access to your laptop from anywhere in the Library, perfect for patrons working on group projects or looking for a quiet space to study and research. Computers at Edgewood offer state-of-the-art access to the Internet and the latest version of Microsoft Office. Your Library card gives you home access to the extensive databases of the eiNetwork and Power Pennsylvania.

Please consider becoming a partner by making a gift to the 2010 C.C. Mellor Memorial Library Annual Appeal. Tax-deductible gifts can be made by check or by using Pay Pal on our web page. Your gift is a major step in helping your Library to continue to serve our community.

Sincerely,

Patrick J. Doyle, Ph.D.
